++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly dry tonight. Frequent showers and sunny spells on Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Most showers will ease through the evening, leaving a widely dry night, though a few showers may still affect the Pennines. Cloud will break up overnight, with long clear spells developing and a frost to form for many by dawn. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Thursday:
Dry and bright initially before patchy cloud develops during the morning, giving frequent showers and sunny spells for the afternoon. Feeling cold with another frosty night to follow. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells and frequent, occasionally heavy, showers each day. Daytime temperatures cool but gradually warming. Largely dry and clear overnight, with a continued chance of rural frosts.
